SEMINAR PRESENTERS

Justine Fosythe – Associate, Whitelaw Twining Law Corporation practices general insurance defence litigation, with a particular emphasis on professional liability claims and coverage matters. She has represented clients in all levels of court in British Columbia. Justine has successfully defended and resolved personal injury and property damage actions, professional liability claims pertaining to the defence of real estate agents, and transportation claims. Justine has prepared coverage opinions on various types of insurance policies, including CGL, D & O Liability, E & O Liability and Marine Insurance and defended coverage claims.

Jessica Brown, CIP – Senior Loss Adjuster, Charles Taylor Adjusting began her insurance career with ING in 1999, where she ascended into a casualty focused examining role. In 2005, Jessica joined St. Paul Travelers as Assistant Claims Manager, balancing leadership and SOX compliance with running a speciality lines casualty division. Prior to joining Charles Taylor Adjusting, Jessica held positions as a Casualty focused independent adjuster and most recently has been with RSA/CNS as a Property Casualty Claims Manager. Through 14 years of experience in handling casualty claims, Jessica has handled losses in Canada and the US and has insight and understanding of both the company side of insurance and in working with litigation counsel.
