Suggested Accompaniment:

The United States of America: A State-by-State Guide

by Millie Miller & Cyndi Nelson

This book includes everything you need and much more to complete the activity pages of our eBook. While you can use any children's atlas of The United States I recommend this one for the kid friendly format, full color illustrations and tons of facts that children actually find interesting. ROLL ACROSS AMERICA

Materials Needed: Dice, Game Markers, Printable Gameboard.

Game Play: Roll the die and move your player accordingly. Once landed you must say the name of your state (or state and capitol for older students). If you don't know the answer you must return to where you player was before and it's the next person's turn. If you land on a bonus you must first say your state (and or capitol). Once correct, you can answer the bonus question for a chance to move ahead as instructed. First player to the Winner spot wins.
