Your Office.
Gazing out of the window across the shattered city, the distorted shapes of the surrounding office blocks seem as twisted fingers, pointing accusingly skyward, through the shifting veils of dust and smoke. Numerous fires blazing out of control; the sirens of emergency service vehicles wailing like tormented souls, complete a picture more horrific than any vision of Dante.

There is an exit East.

ALCHNEWS Issue 11
March 1994
Hello and welcome to yet another "new look" AlchNews! This issue sees the introduction of a great new system, specially designed by Dominic Morris. It's loosely designed on the ENIGMA system, but is more superior with 42 column text.
The controls to move the pages are the CURSOR keys. SPACE loads up the next section of the magazine. I and P control the ink and paper colours, set these to whatever your eyes prefer! Key Z does nothing!
As it's my first time using this system, things may seem a little higgledy piggledy but please bear with me, there will be some uniformity soon!

Ah, tis Christmas time again. No doubt all of you are tucked up nice and warm enjoying the delights of this issue whilst sipping a mild Sherry and a mince pie in the light of the christmas lights.
Well, I'm glad someone is because I'm not! Yes, it's forward planning at Alchemist Research - it's not even Hallow's Eve yet!
One thing for sure, and that it's cold. It's early October and we've already seen snow in the Peak District park near my home! So, relax and let the postman deal with the hassle of getting your software for you - Alchemist Research is the place to come for your stopping-in software and entertainment!

Welcome to issue 12 of AlchNews, the Spectrum only tape and disk magazine. I'd like to welcome all the new readers we've picked up thanks to great support from CHIC COMPUTER CLUB and SPECTRUM UK.
I'd especially like to thank those who have taken the kind words spoken by the above and sent their subscriptions without first sampling our wares. I thank you for the trust you have shown and, to repay that trust, you may like to know that although your cheques have been cashed, the monies will remain in the account, so should anything untoward ever happen, you can guarantee of your money being refunded. This also applies to any other customers. Should you not be happy with

It's been a busy quarter at Alchemist Research, and a very hot one - hasn't summer been good? We had a few heavy thunderstorms 'oop North', restricting the use of the computer equipment, but things are cooling a little now.
It's been a busy time for mail, too, but not in the positive sense. In mid-July, Alchemist Research was the 'luck' recipient of junk mail - terrible junk mail at that! One of them was a special discount on a package of 'wonderful PC software', the other a once-in-a-lifetime offer for computer training. These people obviously didn't know that we don't use a PC and that as far as I, the Ed, is concerned, several years in college

Hi and welcome to another issue of AlchNews. Once again another packed issue with emphasis on articles and information you want to read rather than the self-promotion and laurel resting some print.
Thanks to all of you who wrote in and congratulated us on the size of the last issue, it was hard work but your kind comments make it worthwhile!
A lot of you have also wanted to get in on the action, after seeing the efforts of others you've asked how to work for the Spectrum's biggest and brightest magazine so full details are featured. Happy reading!

NINTH BIRTHDAY ISSUE!!!

Sweeping changes have hit Alchemist Research. Promotion at work has severely cut my free time and, for a while, thought Alchemist Research would have to close.

However, after hundreds of letters and calls to continue, I've come up with a solution to keep Alchemist Research going. It's going to take a lot of hard work and sacrifices, but it will be worth it. I've not spent nine years building it up for nothing.

Full details are given inside. We hope you'll continue to support us. Ed.

MARTYN SHERWOOD ADMITS: "I'M DESPERATE"!

In YET ANOTHER failed attempt at a complaint to a regulatory body, this time to the PRESS COMPLAINTS COMMISSION, Mr. Sherwood admitted: "I am desperate for help". His letter, as usual, was full of blatant lies and errors, which can all be proven. His complaint was NOT acted upon (again!!)

Other Prism-foul ups this quarter include attacks from at least a dozen groups for his unsolicited letters and lies, and he has recently come under more serious fire from BOB BRENCHLEY of FORNAT / INDUG for twisting a piece of news into an anti-format piece, which also contained a "BLATANT LIE". More and more are tasting the bitter wrath of Sherwood - friend or foe!

A.R. REPORTED - YET AGAIN!

In December 1996, we found out that a very sad individual in HARWICHSHIRE had reported us to both TRADING STANDARDS and the ADVERTISING STANDARDS AUTHORITY, now bringing the total to FIVE.

Although having a duty to check the complaint, they found NO FAULTS with ANY PART of Alchemist Research, just like with the previous complaints, even though this person told lies in his letter. I don't need to tell you who is wasting everyone's time and money - YOUR taxes pay for it - making these complaints but although we have ended fights, this sad loser just won't let the matter drop. In late 1996, we had to report Martyn Sherwood's FATHER to the police for allegedly making threats against the Editor. (Src: L.Garland). The incident is now on file. The Ed.

INTERVIEW SPECIAL

Happy new year to everyone! As you can see, AlchNews has now become 'thirdly'. Yes, sadly there will only be three issues per year, unless more assistance can be found to edit the magazine.

On a brighter note, we have some excellent articles in this issue - interviews with two of the biggest names of the Spectrum world: Chris File and Jon Kilman. We also have coverage of the last N55 show plus more O05 bugs and a very comprehensive guide to ALL Sinclair and Timex hardware.

This issue's software includes a ZX-B1 emulator for the SPECTRUM Jet Set Willy 128k and the great driving simulation HARD DRIVIN'.

There's far more good news to report in this issue than the last first of which is the arrival of new magazines. AlchNews is also now well and truly up and running on the Z88.

Hardware is looking good too, thanks to the EPROM project of Kevin Gurd and Miles Binloch. We've also seen a new disk system for the Spectrum +3.

But the software side of things is becoming rather stale. There has been very little in the way of new software, except for the Z88 of course, which is still moving in leaps and bounds! But we need to hear about it. Whether you have a snippet of news or an article about something you've done, hardware you've built or software you've written, TELL US. You get a free issue for your trouble and it keeps the Spectrum going a bit longer!

...Well, yes. I've decided that the problems can go on no longer and need to be sorted, and I'm obviously the one to do it. So, please read the section entitled 'THE END', even if you are not involved.

Other than that, another great issue for you, with a warm welcome to our emulator viewers. Hope you enjoy the show! Have a sood holiday. Ed.

1986 10th BIRTHDAY 1996

We've finally made it! Ten years ago, Alchemist Research was founded. Initially a computer group for the Sinclair QL, it moved to the Spectrum a short time later. In the next decade it blossomed into the largest electronic Spectrum magazine and software library in the world, all free of charge and profit.

Sadly, it will not be a personal celebration. A member of my family has died of leukaemia very suddenly and unexpectedly. Please accept my apologies for this shorter issue. Ed.

Dedicated to the memory of Arthur Rhodes. All my love, Andrew &

Who would have thought it? Me back in control at Alchemist PD! When I handed over the library to Dave Fountain & Lloyd Garland, I swore it would be the end!

But don't send your tapes and orders just yet - the library has been set up on the INTERNET! There are lots of sites distributing (illegally, may I add!) games, but nobody has set up a site of PD software.

Our site is therefore legal and features some classic programs that Spectrum users have all seen, but users on the World Wide Web haven't! In return, we are converting many snapshots and NEW games, such as new Manic Miner and Jet Set Willy games.

The sudden death of Malcolm Mackenzie earlier this year was a shock to us all. But it touched no one more than his family and great friend David Leabury. Our hearts and thoughts go to those who lost a great husband, father and friend.

This issue is dedicated to Malcolm, a great man who did great things for a great computer. I knew him for a good few years and enjoyed his down to earth nature, his (lengthy!) telephone calls and our meetings at the N55 shows. You were a great friend and I will miss your wisdom and advice.

Alch News

PRISM HAS ONLY APPROX. 20 MEMBERS!

Although AlchNews is to feature no more articles about Prism and Martyn Sherwood in it's magazine, we found that we were subject to a hate campaign to try and get rid of us.

Mr Sherwood reported us to the DATA PROTECTION REGISTRAR, for reasons known only to himself. However, we were operating within their guidelines and no action was taken.

Press CURSOR RIGHT for more...

December 1996

Thank you for all of your cards and letters of congratulations regarding our tenth birthday. Only 40 issues until our 20th!

This issue sees our continuing support for Microdrives, machine code, the +3 and emulators, plus reports from the first N55 show in Wetherby and some great UDITCH games. Have a great Christmas.

Andy Davis, Editor.

Alch News

03/97

I'm considering whether to make AlchNews 'thirdly' (i.e. only three issues per year). The reasons are because it gives me far more time to prepare the issue. Work leaves me little free time, which I wish to spend with my new family and a sailing boat I've just bought, rather than on the PC for hours on end.

As with any changes to AlchNews, your comments are welcome and will dictate whether the change is made. There are two other changes you should know of: ASM will no longer be handling tape orders for AlchNews. We weren't happy with the way they were handling things, so 'new boy' Mick Harrop will be taking over. Good luck, sucker! The other change is that our (brief) email address has closed. More details in the NEWS section.

The Ed.

Alch News

05/98

This is the saddest issue that I've ever had the honour (duty!) of editing. For what must be the best three fanzines ever to grace our scene are now bowing out.

Whom am I speaking? CLASSIX, 8 BIT and Z8 FILES. Yes, something of a shock, I'm sure you'll agree. You probably already knew that 8 BIT was to end next year, but it will end with the next issue, which you may now already have in your possession.

So where does that leave us, paper wise? Basically, nowhere. It looks like it's down to FORNAT and CRASHED (if they ever get back into gear) and ALCHNEWS & OUTLET to keep the Z8 community alive.

The Ed.

12/99

I cannot apologise enough for the inexcusable delay with this issue. Several factors all at once halted production for a short period - myself moving house and all my equipment packed away for the move, which was delayed. Hardly any contributions for the issue, even from the regular writers, and, virtually no Sinclair news or happenings to write about.

Hopefully, by the next issue we'll have more people mucking in to help. AlchNews is now one of the last Sinclair productions to still keep going, we need you as much as you need us.

The Ed.

Case of the Obscene Mural, The (Encief Routines,1986)
Text Adventure

You are in a room which has a door to the south, a cupboard to the north, and bookcases on the east and west walls. The books range from BIGGLES COMBS HIS HAIR and
ETHEL THE AARDVAARK GOES QUANTITY SURVEYING to
THE KARMA SUTRA FOR GERBILS (ENLARGED PRINT)
Hardly an inspiring collection.
As you enter a huge penguin drops from the ceiling and starts to eat a packed lunch, blocking the south door. You cannot leave that way!
What will you do now?

This is the Chapel of Rest.
 There are some old worn stone steps by the eastern wall.
 A rope hangs down from the roof where it disappears into a dark attic high above my head.
 Passages lead east and down.

There is also:
 - A Holy candle
 What shall I do now?

Office

A window behind my desk blinked a neon message for a moment then dulled, the office pausing in darkness only to reappear like a rabbit pulled out of a magicians top hat as the neon blinked again.

Rain battered at the windows noisily.

Copyright...The Dreaming Djinn

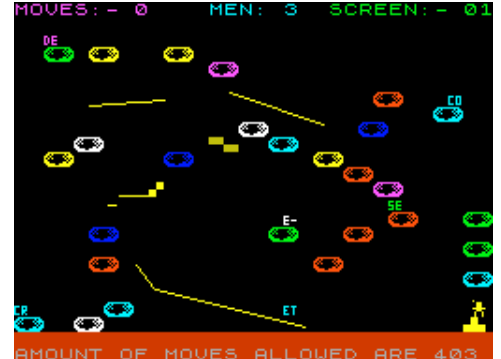

Effls flat is cosy and comfortable. All her furniture has been with her for many years and she considers each piece a personal friend. Exits are NE & Up. You can also see Effl,Willies basket

She is very distressed. When questioned about Willie she howls " The last time I saw him he was sniffing round the bins at the back of the caff. I looked again and he was gorn, and now I've lost my Willie." Effl runs from the room, presumably looking for her dog, leaving you to resume your investigations.

You are in a clearing in the rain-forest, with light filtering down through the tree canopy to reveal a profusion of vegetation. The clearing is dominated by a statue of the Inti, the Sun God. Dense undergrowth surrounds you, but a path leads SOUTH.

Use TASK to see your objectives.

You are carrying:- a string of rosary beads (worn)

Give me your command.

Exploits in a Wheelie-Bin (Delbert the Hamster Software,) Text Adventure

Ruprect stood on a dusty track that wound its way north towards a forest. Rising up on the other side of the forest, Ruprect could see a large hill, though what was behind that remained a mystery. The track also led southeast past some more fields.

Ruprect shook his head in disbelief. "That was an ingenious way of telling me my quest using as little computer memory as possible," he said.

The clearing was dark, damp and quite miserable. (A bit like Leopold, really, especially sporting his new tan). Sounds of birds in the tall trees high above echoed all around, as if they were throwing a wild party. Overgrown paths were visible north, west and east.

Leopold could also see:

You find yourself on a spacious, sandy beach running east to west. Waves crash onto the shore to the north, breaking the silence rather abruptly, although it cannot get rid of your lonely feeling. Dunes pile up to the south. Exits: West and East. You can also see a shovel, a map
What now?
What now?
What now?w
You are close to the west end of the beach, as you can see some bleak, dull rocks towering west of you. They're still some way off though. As well as this, cliffs tower to the south, opposite the sea that's sparkling in the sun. Exits:
West and East. You can also see a sea shell
What now?WOS

I am standing in a one roomed hut, evidently made by very primitive hands.
There is an exit to my south.
On the wall I see an extremely large sign.
Upon further careful opticular contemplation of the immediate surrounding environment, I find the following: -
A locked chest.
Give me your next wondrous command. Oh all intelligent one.

You are standing in the main street of the tiny Inca Village.
The only vague hint of the 20th century, is the Helicopter Pad to your west - your only means of transportation. Except for the few small buildings, which try dolefully to pass themselves off as commercial necessities,

Mordon's Quest (Melbourne House,1985)

Text Adventure

You are on a parquet landing, to your west a fine mahogany staircase with an ornate banister sweeps down to an oak pannelled hallway. To the north lies the entrance to a bedroom, another entrance lies to the east and a locked door leads to the south wing.

You have entered a lavish if somewhat unusually decorated bathroom. Through a window to the east you can see a moss covered drainpipe.

More v1.4 - 15.5.96
-----

Okay, so I got bored one day, I needed a 64 column text viewer that was quick, and worked, and didn't have to be told how long a file was, and also gave me an indicator as to how much of the file I'd read...I looked on my discs, but there wasn't one...

So I wrote this little program - it's 2.75k (including font), which I've decided to call More, because it looks like the UNIX viewer of the same name (also ported to every machine on the Earth as well I think...), even though it's very cut down...but it works and you can feel free to use it as a standardish text viewer. The following keys are used:

Usage:

Space - scroll screen down
N      - scroll screen down
B      - scroll screen up
Enter  - scroll line down

Do you want the five day limit
(Y/N)

What now?...n
You are standing outside a small croft. The dead body of Thomas Goodley lies beside you.
Looking around, you see a track to the west, farm land to the east and the open door to the croft to the south.

What now?...s
You are inside an old but comfortable croft. Flames from the small fire burning in the grate cast flickering shadows around the room. A table, chair and bed are the only visible features of the room.

Naughty Crew Info (Naughty Crew,1997) Scene Demo

Obyvatel vašeho počítače právě obsahuje program, jehož cílem je seznámit vás s DEMOMAKERSKÝM týmem Naughty Crew (pro čestnáře nezbedná posádka). Já jsem Johnny X, hlavní koder tohoto mini-programku. Dnes je 30.7. 1997 0:06 a jáme (já a Schiva) v mém rodném městě - TEPLICE. Pokusím se tedy stručně (snad se vejdu do 20 kb... :-)).

Takže: Na začátku to byl Megasoft ve složení ZIP (Schiva)+ Kato (pry neschopný grafik), asi tak v roce 1995. Po čase Schiva zkontaktoval hudebníka - Chrysgona. Ti pak začátkem roku 1997 založili Naughty Crew (dále jen N.C.). N.C. je momentálně v této sestavě: 3-kodéři - Jardasoft, Johnny X a Schiva; 2-crackéři - Matssoft (Ltd.), Schiva; hudebník - Chrysgon.

Já jsem v N.C. asi půl roku, Jardasoft a Matssoft jsou tu nově. Následují informace o jednotlivých členech (ABECEDONĚ).....

Dream on... e

You go East. As you stumble through the door you tread on your skateboards and fly down the stairs. You stand up dazed.
You are standing at the foot of the now innocent looking stairs (well, I know it was the skateboards fault, but it was the stairs that actually beat you up). Hiding underneath is the coat rack. Exits are S,E,W.
You can see a stick of blood-

Prestel 1: Micromouse (Prestel Tapezine,)

Simulation

Prestel has been slow to take off, in fact, some say it hasn't started yet. However, the advent of the Prism UTX5000 modem for the Spectrum may at last bring the mass user base for which the system was originally conceived. Micronet is just a part of the Prestel system, and has been in operation for only a little more than a year, but already Micronet claim up to a quarter of the 'accesses' totted up by the huge database, around 3 1/2 million in January. Not bad for a minority interest on what started out as a service providing city news and information for travel agencies (still a major threat!). There are supposed to be hundreds of thousands of pages on Prestel, even Telecom probably

Prestel 4: Newsflash (Prestel Tapezine,)

Simulation

One of the great advantages of netting is the up-to-the-minute micro news. The net is ahead of all the mags, even the weeklies, and to symbolise this, I have chosen an item I fully expect to be still current by the time you read it! This is another feedback area, as users are invited to send in news stories of their own. I check the news pages daily, often reading about a new product launched days before Chris gets around to forwarding the press invitation in my post! Most of the 'Information Providers' have a 'what's new' page listing their recent additions. On Micronet this includes new software, letters and updates of regular features. Updating does

Prestel 2: Heartsearch (Prestel Tapezine,)

Simulation

Wups! What's this got to do with computing? Well, it's great fun to poke around in what everyone else is up to (in this case, hanky-panky), and, while those of us with stable relationships may regard Heartsearch with amusement, there are other bulletin boards for penpals, hobbies, and clubs. Computer interest areas also have small ad sections where you can place notices to buy and sell, or just a cry for help in the dungeon. This is where Prestel becomes exciting for me, because, vast as it is, it will respond to you and you can contact the other users who, invisibly, inhabit the place with you. The numbers in the notices are not for phoning but for electronic mail, via

Prestel 5: Aladdin's Cave (Prestel Tapezine,)

Simulation

and Viewfax have stopped allowing small ads even for software 'originals' due to fears that people are selling the originals after making a copy to keep. I reckon they've been got at. This obsession with sales lost to piracy is a sickness. Of course it goes on and it is certainly wrong, but a £200 schoolboy collection of pirated games doesn't represent £200 lost sales. Where would he have got £200 from if he hadn't been able to pirate? Anyhow, as a guest on the 'net I didn't download any pricey progs, only some free ones, and I was pleasantly surprised. More stuff is being added here daily, especially for the Spectrum. It might appeal more to people who don't get sent review software.

Prestel 3: Micrognome (Prestel Tapezine,)

Simulation

Micronet is not the only area of Prestel to be devoted to the micro. Viewfax is a similar sort of thing (eek! flying brickbats) but open to all, whereas Micronet costs £8 a quarter on top of Prestel's £5 subscription. The Gnome is Viewfax's columnist, specializing in Acorn news of the unofficial kind. We are reproducing one of his more innocent screens as Acorn are such a litigious bunch. The Gnome has also revealed page numbers which non-subscribers can use to get in to the free software on Micronet (the 'nets routing management' being somewhat flaky at best). Viewfax, and to a lesser extent Micronet, give more space to Acorn computers than the size of their user base can justify.

Prestel 6: Hotlips (Prestel Tapezine,)

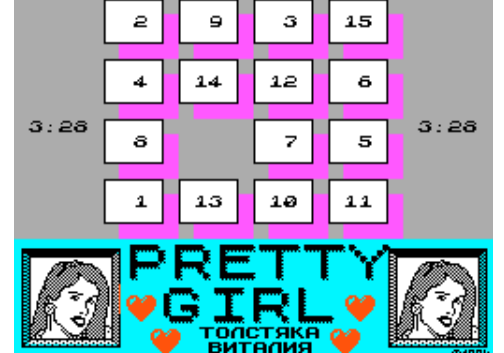

Simulation

Valentines are supposed to be anonymous, and this one goes one better, as we don't really know who it's to, either. Computing Today is the senior magazine around here and gets its name on everything, but that is our box number too. If you're on Prestel you could use it to send us one of BT's nice birthday cards. If you are not on, you might want to know some details. The Prism UTX5000 costs about £100. If you don't have one of BT's new style phone jacks, it will cost about £25 pounds to put in. That is all you need to pay, for hardware. The subscriptions are £20 per year for Prestel and £32 more for Micronet (optional) plus time charges if you call up during office hours. These are

i am sitting in the coach, on my way to castle dracula! the end of this day will see me to my destination! soon we are high in the mountains. the views are stunning! occasionally i see the castle, high up, watching through the clouds, watching? why should i feel that? castles don't watch! ...looking again i gain the impression that it is built in the style of a grand french chateau. tall towers and turrets... the coach rattles on with an urgency i find disarming... i'm ready for your instructions.

Software Crimes of Bill Gilbert, The (Double 27,1991) Scene Demo

BROKEN BY BILL GILBERT
  don't believe in magic!!!
Hacker Chris breaks 100 % games and sells him these creations!!!
Then bill loads cracked games, plays a bit and presses button of his MASTERFACE,so each game is double or triple broken (if the 2nd wasn't good) by bill!!!
It's true! But bill cracks already broken releases.

  FOR WHAT? That's a question!
The correct answer:for install his famous sentence:BROKEN BY...

PRESS SPACE

B.L.L. WATCH OUT!

NUKE SKYPORTER STOOD... WELL, CROUCHED, IN THE RATHER CLAUSTROPHOBIC SECRET HIDING
PLACE. IT WAS SCARCELY
FURNISHED, APART FROM A FEW
CRATES LYING AROUND. NUKE WAS UPSET THAT YAN POLO HAD NOT TAKEN THE TIME TO MAKE IT A BIT MORE WELCOMING.
THE ONLY EXIT WAS A SMALL HATCH
THAT LED UP.
WHAT SHOULD NUKE DO NOW?

TASWIDE README FILE
Using TASWIDE in basic programs.
(1) Short basic programs .
If the basic program in to which you wish to incorporate taswide is under 12 K bytes in length , then merging the taswide basic program in to your basic program will not be a problem.
(1) Longer basic programs .
Longer basic programs will need to use the program "PRELOAD" provided . This will work if the last line loads your program .
The space available for basic programs is reduced from 42K bytes to 37K bytes by TASWIDE .
