

FATAL CAR CRASH SUNDAY MORNING

An auto collision Sunday morning southwest of State Center cost the life of Mrs. Fred S. Kruse (53) of northwest of Collins, who died a few minutes after the accident, and John Liston of Des Moines, who died Wednesday in a Marshalltown hospital.

Mrs. Rosella Kielly, wife of Leo (Bud) Kielly of State Center, is in a hospital, and Mr. Kielly and Mr. Kruse suffered minor injuries.

Mr. Kielly and Mr. Kruse escaped with minor cuts and bruises, but the latter suffered considerably from shock.

Kielly, driving a Buick sedan, was coming from the south after he, Mrs. Kielly and Mr. Liston had attended mass at St. Joseph's church at Rhodes, and Kruse was going east in his Chevrolet sport sedan when the two cars met at right angles in the intersection. Apparently neither driver saw the other until just a moment before the impact.

(Mr. and Mrs. Kruse only recently moved from near Melbourne to the Donald Titus farm, which they purchased).
