

North Hopkins FFA Report Reported by: Samuel Stanley

The North Hopkins FFA has been extremely busy with numerous activities and contests the last couple of months. The October month the chapter hosted their monthly FFA meeting called All About FFA with the motto FFA isn't just about cows, sows and, plows. They talked about everything the FFA had to offer other than actual farming such as LDE's, CDE's, Scholarships, and other awards you could gain. Guest speaker and state extemporaneous speaking champion Hudson Northcutt came and spoke about never giving up and fulfilling your dreams.

The November month was in full swing with the numerous Leadership Development Events. The invitational contests proved early that the students were bound for success with multiple team wins in chapter conducting and individual wins in creed speaking. With the 7 teams competing in the district LDE contest, 4 of those advanced to area. Those conducting- 3rd, Creed- 2nd, Radio-Creed- 3rd, Senior LDE contest the in the top 3 in two alternates in the include; Greenhand chapter Greenhand Quiz- 6th, Greenhand 8th, Public Relations- 3rd, Senior Quiz- 5th. After attending the Area teams walked away proud of being contests, thus putting them state contest.

We ended the community service roadside in front adopted highway. December has many holiday younger students passed out goody bags, and took pictures with Santa. We then held our chapter Christmas Meeting on Wednesday the 16th where all the members attended lunch in the ag shop.

month with the Adopt-A-Highway project where we cleaned up the of the campus within our mile of proved successful as well with the events. We hosted Santa Day for the on campus on Monday the 14th and

The chapter officers traveled to Sulphur Springs on Thursday 17th to deliver their angels gifts for the holidays and meet their angels.

The upcoming month will be busy as the chapter is getting ready for District Convention where they will hear two of their own members run for district and area office within the FFA.