Forward-Looking Statements

This presentation includes forward-looking statements. We have based these forward-looking statements on our current expectations and projections about future events. Forward-looking statements include information preceded by, followed by, or that includes the words "guidance," "believes," "expects," "anticipates," "could," or similar expressions. For these statements, Nexstar claims the protection of the safe harbor for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. The forward-looking statements contained in this presentation, concerning, among other things, future financial performance, including changes in net revenue, cash flow and operating expenses, involve risks and uncertainties, and are subject to change based on various important factors, including the impact of changes in national and regional economies, the ability to service and refinance our outstanding debt, successful integration of acquired television stations and digital businesses (including achievement of synergies and cost reductions), pricing fluctuations in local and national advertising, future regulatory actions and conditions in the television stations' operating areas, competition from others in the broadcast television markets, volatility in programming costs, the effects of governmental regulation of broadcasting, industry consolidation, technological developments and major world news events. Nexstar undertakes no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. In light of these risks, uncertainties and assumptions, the forward-looking events discussed in this presentation might not occur. You should not place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date of this presentation. For more details on factors that could affect these expectations, please see Nexstar's other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Definitions and Disclosures Regarding non-GAAP Financial Information

Adjusted EBITDA is calculated as net income, plus interest expense (net), loss on extinguishment of debt, income tax expense (benefit), depreciation, amortization of intangible assets and broadcast rights, (gain) loss on asset disposal, goodwill and intangible assets impairment, loss (income) on equity investments, distribution from equity investments and other expense (income), minus reimbursement from the FCC related to station repack and broadcast rights payments. We consider Adjusted EBITDA to be an indicator of our assets' operating performance and a measure of our ability to service debt. It is also used by management to identify the cash available for strategic acquisitions and investments, maintain capital assets and fund ongoing operations and working capital needs. We also believe that Adjusted EBITDA is useful to investors and lenders as a measure of valuation and ability to service debt.

Given the Company's previous disclosure that effective November 1, 2020 it combined its broadcast and digital operations, commencing with the fourth quarter of 2020, Nexstar no longer reports broadcast cash flow but investors can calculate a comparable metric for the combined broadcast and digital operations by adding back corporate expense to Adjusted EBITDA.

Free cash flow is calculated as net income, plus interest expense (net), loss on extinguishment of debt, income tax expense (benefit), depreciation, amortization of intangible assets and broadcast rights, (gain) loss on asset disposal, stock-based compensation expense, goodwill and intangible assets impairment, loss (income) on equity investments, distribution from equity investments and other expense (income), minus payments for broadcast rights, cash interest expense, capital expenditures, proceeds from disposals of property and equipment, and net operating cash income taxes. We consider Free Cash Flow to be an indicator of our assets' operating performance. In addition, this measure is useful to investors because it is frequently used by industry analysts, investors and lenders as a measure of valuation for broadcast companies, although their definitions of Free Cash Flow may differ from our definition.

For a reconciliation of these non-GAAP financial measurements to the GAAP financial results cited in this presentation, please see the supplemental tables at the end of Nexstar's first quarter financial results press release dated May 4, 2021.

With respect to our forward-looking guidance, no reconciliation between a non-GAAP measure to the closest corresponding GAAP measure is included in this release because we are unable to quantify certain amounts that would be required to be included in the GAAP measure without unreasonable efforts and we believe such reconciliations would imply a degree of precision that would be confusing or misleading to investors. In particular, a reconciliation of forward-looking Free Cash Flow to the closest corresponding GAAP measure is not available without unreasonable efforts on a forward-looking basis due to the high variability, complexity and low visibility with respect to the charges excluded from these non-GAAP measures such as the measures and effects of stock-based compensation expense specific to equity compensation awards that are directly impacted by unpredictable fluctuations in our stock price and other non-recurring or unusual items such as impairment charges, transaction-related costs and gains or losses on sales of assets. We expect the variability of these items to have a significant, and potentially unpredictable, impact on our future GAAP financial results.

- NXST generated record net revenue, Adjusted EBITDA and free cash flow in 2020
- Though guidance was suspended, NXST full year 2020 free cash flow was ultimately in line with pre-pandemic expectations
- NXST lowered YE20 total net leverage to 3.6x, in line with previously stated goal of reaching high 3.0x by YE20

NXST 2020 Revenue Growth

For a reconciliation of non-GAAP financial measurements, please see the supplemental tables at the end of Nexstar's second quarter financial results press release dated February 23, 2021. For detailed disclosure, please see Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the twelve month period ended December 31, 2020.

2020 Highlights: Operations, Capital Structure, Leverage Reduction & Return of Capital

- Record FY20 revenue, broadcast cash flow, adjusted EBITDA and free cash flow primarily reflecting the realization of Tribune synergies, distribution agreement renewals executed in 2H19 and strong political advertising revenue
 - Achieved free cash flow budget and June 2019 forecast despite affects of pandemic
 - FY20 adjusted EBITDA and free cash flow include ~$224mm in distributions from equity investments related to NXST's 31% ownership in the TV Food Network
- NXST implemented a range of COVID-related cost-cutting initiatives throughout 2020 which resulted in operating and corporate expense savings of $75 mm from budgeted levels without furloughs, staff reductions or pay cuts
- In FY20, NXST allocated ~$1.0 bn in funds from operations and investments toward debt reduction, lowering its first lien net leverage ratio from 3.52x at year-end 2019 to 2.28x at December 31, 2020; total net leverage ratio at December 31, 2020 was 3.6x, compared to 5.18x at year-end 2019
- In FY20, NXST returned $101 mm to shareholders in the form of dividends and allocated $282 mm of cash from operations to opportunistically repurchase ~2.4 mm NXST shares, reducing its basic share count to ~43 mm outstanding class A common shares
- NXST completed the purchase and sale agreements with Fox, whereby NXST purchased the WJZY (FOX) and WMYT (MyNetworkTV) in Charlotte, and divested KCPQ (FOX) and KZJO (MyNetworkTV) in Seattle and WITI (FOX) in Milwaukee for net after tax proceeds of ~$240 mm
- NXST reached settlement with Sinclair, resolving the outstanding litigation inherited in the Tribune transaction
 - As part of the resolution, Sinclair agreed to sell NXST WDKY-TV in Lexington, KY and the non-license assets of KGBT-TV in Harlington, TX, in addition to making a cash settlement payment of ~$98 mm to NXST
- Completed the accretive acquisitions of WPIX-TV and digital consumer product recommendations company BestReviews in December 2020
- NXST launched the News Nation prime-time newscast on September 1, 2020, which reaches ~75 mm U.S. TV households and is complemented by the 24/7 mobile news app, newsnationnow.com

2020 Highlights: Capital Markets Transactions / Strategic Operational Alignment

- NXST completed two capital market transactions that allowed the Company to eliminate its most expensive debt while extending maturities
 - NXST and Mission entered into an incremental secured revolving credit facility in an aggregate principal amount of $280 mm, of which $250 mm was allocated to Mission and $30 mm allocated to NXST
 - NXST completed the offering of $1 bn of 4.75% senior notes due 2028 and used the net proceeds to redeem in full its $900 mm 5.625% senior notes due 2024 and to pay related premiums, accrued and unpaid interest, and fees and expenses, with the remainder available for general corporate purposes
 - The resulting interest expense savings, combined with the declining borrowings and attractive rate environment, will allow NXST to de-lever while affording the financial flexibility to act on other opportunities to enhance shareholder value
- NXST combined Nexstar Broadcasting and Nexstar Digital subsidiaries to drive synergies, create operational efficiencies, reduce expenses and enhance financial results
 - In October, NXST promoted Tom Carter to President and Chief Operating Officer, while he retains his current responsibilities as Chief Financial Officer
 - During his 11 year tenure, he has played a major role in executing the Company's growth plan through the completion and successful integration of accretive acquisitions which have significantly expanded NXST's free cash flow and operating portfolio while cementing the Company's position as the nation's largest local television broadcaster
 - In November, NXST combined its two primary operating subsidiaries, merging Nexstar Digital LLC, and Nexstar Broadcasting, Inc. creating a new single operating subsidiary, Nexstar Inc.
 - New operational structure aligns the Company's national leadership in local content production with its broadcasting and digital management teams to maximize the value of NXST's media content, national reach and significant consumer digital usage across multiple platforms
 - NXST will strengthen its focus on distributing content consumers want most, delivered the way they prefer to consume it, which the Company believes will drive near- and long-term operating results and improvements
 - NXST expects a mid-seven figure expense savings in 2021 as a result of the synergies, efficiencies, and streamlined reporting structure resulting from this realignment

2021 YTD Highlights: Operations, Capital Structure, Leverage Reduction & Return of Capital

- Record 1Q21 revenue, broadcast cash flow, adjusted EBITDA and free cash flow primarily reflecting double-digit digital and distribution revenue and a continued recovery in core advertising, which offset the year-over-year decline in cyclical political advertising revenue
 - 1Q21 adjusted EBITDA and free cash flow include ~$178mm in distributions from equity investments related to NXST's 31% ownership in the TV Food Network
- In 1Q21, NXST allocated ~$75 mm in funds from operations and investments toward debt reduction, lowering its first lien net leverage ratio from 2.28x at year-end 2020 to 2.14x at March 31, 2021; total net leverage ratio at March 31, 2021 was 3.4x, compared to 3.6x at year-end 2020
- In 1Q21, NXST returned $30.4 mm to shareholders in the form of dividends and allocated $121 mm of cash from operations to opportunistically repurchase 808,530 NXST shares, reducing its basic share count to ~43 mm outstanding class A common shares
 - In early 2021, NXST's Board of Directors approved a 25% increase in the quarterly cash dividend to $0.56 per share beginning in 1Q21, marking the eighth annual consecutive rise in its cash dividend
 - In early 2021, NXST's Board of Directors also approved an additional $1.0 bn share repurchase authorization, reflecting the attractiveness of NXST's free cash flow yield and a potential acceleration of share repurchases as leverage moderates and large-scale acquisitions become more scarce given current regulations
- NXST reiterated its pro-forma average annual free cash flow guidance of approximately $1.27 billion over the 2021/2022 cycle
- In March 2021, NXST had a ratings review with S&P which resulted in a one-notch upgrade on our Corporate Issuer rating to BB; a two-notch upgrade to BBB- on NXST's Secured Debt rating and a one-notch upgrade on NXST's Unsecured Bond rating to B+
 - S&P's commentary centered on the rapid deleveraging exhibited post-Tribune acquisition and improved economic recovery
- Announced the promotion of experienced media executive Andy Alford to President of Broadcasting Division, effective June 1, 2021. Mr. Alford will replace Tim Busch who is retiring after serving NXST for more than 20 years
- In March 2021, NXST rebranded WGN America as NewsNation and expanded its news and talk programming line-up to five hours

Growth in NXST Retransmission Revenue

TV ratings and programming cost analysis supports continued growth in retransmission fee revenues given broadcast's strong viewership trends compared to basic cable
