Ulagall Resort's features ecologically-built villas

9. Ulagalla Resort

The centrepiece here is a 150-year-old mansion encircled by 20 private, ecologically-built villas spread across 58 acres of lush greenery, paddyfields and woodland. With its own solar farm generating half of its entire energy requirements, Ulagalla Resort is truly a unique stay in Sri Lanka.

Activities on offer for guests include bird watching, cycling, full-moon day (poya) visit to the Veheragalla Buddhist temple for meditation, yoga, kayaking, and horseback riding. It also makes for the perfect base to explore Anuradhapura, part of Cultural Triangle and a highlight on your trip to Sri Lanka.
